IN-HOUSE
BY NEW ROAD

LEGAL SUPPORT THAT KEEPS YOU MOVING

In-house by New Road is designed to support growing recruitment businesses, from winning bigger client contracts, hiring fast and protecting your best billers, safeguarding margin and commission, to building a business that's ready for investment or sale.

You get on-demand, commercial and pragmatic legal support from a lawyer and former General Counsel, Company Secretary and COO within the recruitment sector.

Unlike lawyers who take a purely theoretical approach, Katie has sat at the table: she understands the pressures agencies face and the need for practical, workable solutions to cut through complexity and manage commercial reality.

In-house by New Road delivers legal support how you need it: commercial, quick, and at a predictable monthly cost.
